

As the legend goes, the enigmatic BIG WETT emerged through the fog of a dance floor in late 2021, and rapidly gained a cult following through whispers of intoxicating live shows and fabled Soundcloud demos that hit the G-spot. Today, BIG WETT continues to enthral her loyal followers around the world, selling out headline shows from Naarm to London, and picking up support from triple j, DORK, NME, Dummy and more.

Her music is made for the sluts, the gays, the girls and the theys – it's all about letting loose and living your best life, while also taking care of yourself and your community. It's about being smart but also gloriously, deliriously silly. It's about singing into a diamanté-encrusted microphone while wielding a double-ended dildo – sometimes both at the same time. It's BIG WETT's world and we're just living in it, baby.

Having made waves on the live circuit with her irreverent and wild stage presence, including memorable performances at Meredith Music Festival and Pitch Music & Arts, a UK debut at The Great Escape and an upcoming slot at Splendour in the Grass, BIG WETT announces herself officially with her debut EP.

The aptly-titled PU$$Y is exactly what it says on the tin: an unabashed exploration of the joys of sex through pounding electronic tunes that are made to start the party, whether on a sticky nightclub floor, a dark strip club or the wide open communal space of a music festival in the blazing sun.

PU$$Y celebrates sex and life in all its messy glory, marrying thumping beats inspired by 90s rave, techno and contemporary sounds with filthy, cheeky lyrics designed to empower and arouse. These six tracks, all clocking in at under three minutes, are fast and hard. Whether it's about having the best pussy in the club, having ecstatic sex on drugs or finally meeting that guy with the perfect dick, these tunes are juicy and joyful. Blending sexy fantasies with bold, affirming statements of self-love and self-esteem, it's impossible to listen to BIG WETT without feeling yourself – maybe literally?

Ready for a good time? Hop on board the PU$$Y wagon and get to know BIG WETT – you won't regret it.

Track by track:

NUMBER 1 PUSSY

A banger for the self-esteem, Number 1 Pussy is about just that: having the best pussy in the club, against pulsing beats. Dare you to feel bad after listening to this – you can't.

BAGS

Bitches ain't got shit: say it with us. A sultry, slinky R&B-inspired number with horns, marimba and a chunky bass line to lose yourself in.

G-SPOT

Sirens, fat bass, skittering hi-hats, a deep, booming vocal driving it forward... this track has it all. If you didn't know where your G-spot was before, you do now.

DONT U WANT IT ALL

Breathy and sexy, this song is unapologetically horny. The combination of cowbell and a thick, unrelenting bass line makes for a unique listening experience that's also incredibly hot.

RUSH OF ADRENALINE

In under two minutes, this track will give you exactly what it promises: a 90s-inflected sugar rush about getting down while you're high.

KING DICK

One of BIG WETT's first singles, King Dick is made for singalongs. An ode to the guy with the king dick and a wallet full of cash, it's impossibly catchy and the perfect dance floor starter.
