

NAIDOC WEEK
50 YEARS DEADLY
 5-12 JULY 2026

NORTHERN INSTITUTE
 People. Policy. Place.

LIBRARY & ARCHIVES
 NORTHERN TERRITORY

NORTHERN INSTITUTE AND LIBRARY & ARCHIVES NT PRESENTS:

DEADLY RESEARCH

Assoc Prof Tracy Woodroffe
 Northern Institute | CDU

Christian Miller Sabbioni
 University of Western Australia

Dr Jodi Cowdery
 LaTrobe University

Dr Cat Kutay
 Charles Darwin University

This NAIDOC Week, we're bringing together four outstanding Aboriginal researchers to share their world-class insights - work that's shaping communities, knowledge, and the future.

From examining how settler-colonial narratives shape perceptions of northern Australia, to amplifying the experiences of Indigenous women in the NT mining industry, we bring you research that challenges systems of exclusion and inequity.

Learn how First Nations Knowledge Systems are transforming education through culturally grounded, Indigenous-led research and leadership. Plus, we'll highlight innovative digital projects using AI and game design to preserve Aboriginal knowledge, with an opportunity for First Nations players to trial newly designed games and give feedback.

All Welcome | Free Event | Morning Tea provided

Thursday 9 August
 10:00 am - 1:00 pm

Level 2, Library & Archives
Northern Territory
 Danala Education and Community Precinct

Scan for registration and event info

This event is brought to you in collaboration with Northern Institute and Library and Archives NT