

Intercultural Mediation (5 day) Intensive Workshop IAS539/IAS402

This 5 day intensive workshop provides participants with the knowledge and skills to become a mediator under the National Mediator Accreditation Standards (NMAS). The workshop is designed as an introductory mediation course through the lens of working cross culturally particularly in Indigenous communities. It will provide you with a theoretical framework for contemporary mediation, skills and tools, and practice.

The workshop is 38 hours and is participatory and immersive. It will be delivered by highly experienced peacemakers and will include personalised coaching and feedback. It can be credited towards your postgraduate or undergraduate degree or taken as stand-alone professional development.

WORKSHOP FACILITATORS:

Mawul Rom Peacemaking Indigenous Corporation in partnership with College of Indigenous Futures, Education, Arts & Society (CDU).

WHEN: 22-26 February 2021
8.30am – 5.00pm

WHERE: Blue 2 Precinct
CDU Casuarina Campus (map)

COST: Workshop Participants $2500
Enrolled CDU students $500*
*plus course enrolment fee

This course is recommended for anyone interested in increasing their skills in communication and managing conflict. It will be particularly useful for people working in intercultural contexts, including lawyers, land management coordinators, educators, doctors and health professionals, government administrators, people working in intercultural leadership/advocacy positions and University students.

MORE INFORMATION & REGISTRATION:

www.cdu.edu.au/northern-institute/intercultural-mediation-workshop

TESTIMONIALS FROM PREVIOUS PARTICIPANTS:

- An enriching, thought provoking workshop that everyone should take so we can all be peacemakers in all aspects of life.
- The intercultural element is integral to working in the NT and Australia.
- A rewarding experience that is useful regardless if you end up being a mediator.
- A full week of both intellectual and experiential learning.
- A privilege to learn about different knowledge systems and have the opportunity to reflect on how they integrate, align and differ.
- A life changing experience in understanding the depth of cultural experience that frames our lives.
- Both the Yolngu leaders sharing their insights but also the role playing bringing a new dimension to understanding the stories behind the conflicts that can arise.